Special Thanks To Selections & Awards Jurors

J.P. ATTERBERRY
ALAN MAGAYNE-ROSHAK
FRANCES J. PAQUETTE

J.P. Atterberry brings his Bachelors of Art & Art History from the University of Arizona and Printmaking from Florence, Italy to great use as a Fine Art Photographer. He has been a member of the Fine Art faculty for the Milwaukee Institute of Art & Design, University of Wisconsin and the Milwaukee Center for Photography. J.P. has had Solo and Group Exhibitions in Wisconsin, Michigan, Kentucky, South Dakota, Colorado, New Mexico and Georgia. Many of his collections can be seen all around the world.

Alan Magayne-Roshak is a self taught professional photographer, graduating from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee with a degree in Art History. He worked at the University's Photo Services department for 36 years and now as Senior Photographer. Having received 98 awards from news, industrial, and university photographer associations, Alan is personally working on documenting architecture threatened by demolition, inspired by his favorite photographer, Elliott Erwitt.

Frances J. Paquette, owner of “Allied Digital Photo Services” in Germantown, WI for over 12 years. Her clients include Northwestern Mutual, Marquette University Athletic Department, MATC, MSOE and TV Channel 6. She also personally works with artists and photographers getting their work ready for competition and juried shows. In addition, Frances teaches photography to local groups and organizations, and served as member and secretary of Menomonee Falls Historical Society and Germantown Historical Society.
